

FRIENDS OF MEDIEVAL DUBLIN

10th Medieval Dublin Symposium 2008

Robert Emmet Theatre
(Room 2037), Arts Building,
Trinity College, Dublin

Saturday 24 May 2008

(Sea Stallion photograph: www.VikingeSkibsMuseet.dk)

- 09.30 Registration and opening remarks
Seán Duffy
- 09.45 The bank, the ditch, and the water: Hiberno-Norse evidence from Hammond Lane Phase 2
Sinéad Phelan
- 10.30 Prosopography and philanthropy: a study of the benefactors of the Hospital of St John the Baptist, Dublin
Grace O'Keeffe
- 11.10 Tea / coffee
- 11.30 *A pre-Viking riverside revetment at Islandbridge:
excavations on the site of Clancy Barracks*
Kevin Lohan
- 12.10 The Tyrel brothers: outlaws in fourteenth-century Dublin
Áine Foley
- 12.45 Lunch
- 14.00 Bride Street revisited: Viking burial in Dublin and beyond
Stephen Harrison
- 14.40 *"Disgusting Street": a semi-aquatic excavation
in medieval Dublin*
Alan Hayden
- 15.20 Tea / coffee
- 15.40 *Early Christian & medieval excavations at Teach Naithí;
the changing morphology of a church site in Dundrum*
Edmond O'Donovan
- 16.20 Roskilde to Dublin: the voyage of the Sea Stallion
Tríona Nicholl

Admission free. All welcome.

For further information, contact sduffy@tcd.ie or telephone (01) 8961801